BLIND FAITH

It's been a long long time we've watched you pilot this parade
Spinning lies into butterflies, to float your whole charade
I don't know why you had the mind to steer yourself astray
You are living a lie, Living on blind faith

You never had to face the fear of living on the street or wonder how you'll pay for food, or shoe your baby's feet
A safety net to hedge your bets determines your beliefs
You are living a lie, Living on blind faith

(Refrain)

The sky is falling through and all you can do is pray
while we lay here and die
There's no giving
when you're living
on blind faith

I know you never meant to set yourself on the attack, but now
How can you ignore the bleeding, as you're speeding down this loveless track
The world in tow, you still don't know a reason to turn back
You are living a lie, Living on blind faith

You stand here and demand that you weren't wrong to lead the wrath
But we pay the price, no sacrifice along your primrose path
You never cared or even dared to count the aftermath
You are living a lie, Living on blind faith

(Refrain)

And so it's come to this, my friend: you're really on the spot
Working your direct connection to the big guy at the top
But we all see that you believe because it's all you've got
You are living a lie

(Refrain)

Living on blind faith Your plans are falling through and you refuse to change
while we lay here and die

Earth calling you:
The sky is falling through
and all you can do is pray
while we lay here and die (repeat section)
There's no giving
when you're living
on blind faith
Blind faith

BLOOD SUGAR/ALIVE!

Hear the dusty cry, blood held inside
Oooo it fills your head, bone-dry and left for dead
Hear the final groan, your heart feels like stone
Your river moves like paste, you're thirsting for her taste
Louder than the roar of blood you can't ignore Sugar breaks the sky, she sings down in the night
And when she hits the ground, she moves without a sound
In her magic shoes, she wanna dance your blues

Blood Sugar, Blood Sugar
Blood Sugar on the rise
You're alive!

Songs and lonely men lay at rest, wait for my breath
So long and wet and deep, I'll kiss you, kiss you, kiss you from your sleep
Kiss your need

Fallen from desire, you're in need of fire
Your heart aches the loss and bears your daddy's cross
Sugar sacrifice the pain, she'll raise you up to see god's face
She'll lighten your heavy load and put you on that final road
She hears your rattlin' chains, sees you paralyzed in wait
She's come to help you fly and ooo mix that magic right
You want to hear her voice so, come on, make the choice
You know she has no shame so, uh! Call her name

Blood Sugar, Blood Sugar
Blood Sugar on the rise
You're alive!

No more therapy, I won't commit the crime Sugar, come to me, oh come in, come in, come in Come inside!
I'm alive!

Now Sugar's hit the ground, she moves without a sound
In her magic shoes, she wanna dance your blues
You want to hear her voice, well darlin', make the choice
You know she has no shame, no shame! So call her name

Blood Sugar, Blood Sugar
Blood Sugar on the rise
You're alive!
You're alive!
You're alive!

GOOD GIRL BLUES

I'm sitting here alone
Like a queen on her throne. . . .

Working hard for you each day
While the clock ticks away
I've got this good girl curse

I've got this good girl curse
I've got this good girl curse

You want to see me smile
But I'm not satisfied
With nothing but these Good Girl Blues

I want to laugh, I want to sing
I want to feel everything
But I'm numb with these Good Girl Blues

I'm numb with these Good Girl Blues
I'm numb with these Good Girl Blues

Chorus

Only your arms can take me, make me love again Only your charms can break me out of this frozen state I'm in Got an itch so deep I can't scratch it Love so sweet I can't have it
Whisper your wish and I'll grant it Touch me and we can share this passion

It's building up inside
This urge I can't deny
To leave behind these Good Girl Blues

Like a lion on a chain
I think I'll go insane
Unleash me from these Good Girl Blues

Unleash me from these Good Girl Blues
Unleash me from these Good Girl Blues

Instrumental

(Repeat Final Verse and Refrain)

JUNKIE FOR YOUR LOVE

Free
Baby, picture me
Free is what I used to be
They called me “dangerous” because I made a big fuss if my freedom was in jeopardy

Pre-Chorus

How did I go from high to low
From self-control to constant crave?

Chorus

I'm a slave
I'm a slave to your stuff
I'm a junkie for your love
I'm a slave
And I can't get enough
I'm a junkie for your love

Walk

I could walk out the door
Watching hearts fall onto the floor
I cut a thousand ties
Caused a few to cry
Now I'm the one begging for more

Pre-Chorus

Chorus

Bridge

No arms could hold me
I would slip away
Now it's me who's lonely
Won't you let me stay?

Itch

Yeah I'm itching to score
And you let my heart fall onto the floor
I promise next time that I won't cry
If you give me just a little bit
Give me just a little bit
Give me just a little bit
Just a little bit more

Pre-Chorus

Chorus

Outro

LULLA-BYE-BYE

Lulla-bye-bye don't you cry
Daddy says that tears waste time
Still I wouldn't turn the sun away even if he had to say

No clues
No money
Just a heart full of honey
Can I feed you on love this week

Lulla-bye-bye don't you cry
'cause it's time to say good-night
There's a rainbow 'round the moon that says your time is due

No news
No money
Just a heart full of honey
Can I feed you on love this week

(instrumental)

Lulla-bye-bye baby sleep tight
Morning brings the light
And if the dawn should fail you'll be walking through heaven's gate

No boots
No money
Just a heart full of honey
Can I feed you on love this week

No boots
No money
Just a bed full of honey
Can I feed you on love this week
Can I feed you on love this week
Can I feed you on love this week....

MEDICATE MY SOUL

I can't seem to reach you, baby
I can't seem to get my message through Dogs all bark it on the city streets
Can you hear them all repeat it

Hey hey hey
Walk away (repeat)
But please don't leave me now....

Helicopters cruise the skies
The war zone has come to life

Hey hey hey
Walk away

And I don't need to watch tv to remind me of disease

Hey hey hey
Medicate my soul
Medicate my soul (repeat)

But please don't leave me now...

I've been here forever
These streets are mine
This is my heaven
It's my dirty world divine
How dare you walk my wasteland with your pretty little smile Beaming like a sunflower like a precious little child

Will no amount of clever lines bring you back to me this time?

Medicate my soul (repeat)
But please don't leave me now....

Alleluia
Medicate my soul
Give me something to stop this rolling
Medicate my soul
Give me something
Please give me something to hold....

MUST BE LOVE

Coffee and tea cannot wake me
Like you do
Airplanes and fast trains can't take me
Like you do

(Chorus)

Like the angels say
It comes from up above
Night and day
I just can't get enough
You amaze me
Drive me crazy
Must be love

Earthquakes and high stakes can't shake me
Like you do
Blue days and heartaches can't break me
Like you do

(Chorus)

(bridge)

We're under the spell of devotion
Rhythm, refrain and rhyme...
Improvise

(Solo)

Bright lights and wild nights don't move me
Like you do
Pop stars and hot cars don't groove me
Like you do

(Chorus x2)

You amaze me
Drive me crazy
Must be love (x3)

NO SURRENDER

Prince charming
Disarming
Once upon a time
You're pretty and witty
You left me high and dry

Come nightfall
You call
All you wanna do is hold me and scold me
Break my heart in two

(Chorus)

I won't surrender
I won't surrender
I won't surrender
And I won't fight

Promise spoken
Love's token broken by sunrise
Deceiving
then leaving
Believing your own lies

I won't play
One more day
Your game's about to end
So beg and plead
Get down on your knees
I vow that I won't bend

(Chorus)

(Bridge)

Dance with the chance that this romance will live
But blood from a diamond,
I just can't give, I can't give

(Chorus)

(ad lib)

Come on, baby: cry, cry, cry
Oh, you can try, try, try
But I won't surrender
And I won't fight

PSYCHIC FLOOD REMIX

I'm alright tonight, she said

Everything is going 'round
Going wrong, going down
Everything is going 'round
Tell me how how I'll be found See the fires burning the fighting, the yearning
See the fires churning
And nobody's learning

But I'm alright tonight, she said

Hear the ocean calling
It's rising and falling
Do you hear the ocean calling
It's falling, you're crawling Love shatters and you're glowing Your psyche is showing Hearts shatter, soul is knowing
Are you growing, growing

I'm alright tonight, she said

Hear the stars mumble
They're watching me stumble
Hear the stars tumble
They touch me, I crumble
Love shatters and I'm glowing My psyche is flowing Heart shatters in the holding
The groaning, the growing

But I'm alright tonight, she said

Everything is going 'round in the sound, turn around Everyone is yearning and burning it down
Hear the ocean calling, we fall and we fall Hearts shatter now and together crawl
Hear the stars mumble, the world takes a tumble Every little thing is changing, together we crumble and cry, try, why, fly, yearn, turn, burn, learn Every little thing is changing, hearts rearrange Every little thing is changing, minds rearrange Every little thing is changing, souls rearrange call, fall, wall, crawl, flow, show, grow, glow Every little thing is changing

RAINING ON MY PILLOW

Raining on my pillow
in the new twilight
Raining on my pillow
I'm alone tonight
And I can feel you right here but you're only on my mind
Raining on my pillow
in the blue twilight

Raining on my pillow
in the dead of night
Raining on my pillow
not a star in sight
Diamonds fall from the sky
They only make me cry
Raining on my pillow
in the dead of night

Raining on my pillow
in the candlelight
Raining on my pillow
Raining all the time
I can't make you stop and I can't make you try
Raining on my pillow
through the day and night

Raining on my pillow
It's so cold tonight
Raining on my pillow
and I lose my mind
I can't feel you at all
You're on the other side
Raining on my pillow
on a winter night

Diamonds fall from the sky
Diamonds falling from the sky
And it's raining on my
And it's raining on my
And it's raining on my pillow all the time
On my pillow
On my pillow

SUPERSTITIOUS

Black cats don't bother me, black cats
All you black cats, go on and cross my street
I'll line them all up with spells and witches
You're the only one that makes me superstitious
Oh, you! You make me superstitious

See a penny, pick it up, penny, that's good luck
Penny, hundred make a buck
That won't make me rich, maybe just ridiculous
You're the only one that makes me superstitious
Oh, you! You make me superstitious

(Chorus 1)

I've got seven vials of holy water
Seven lockets of your hair
Seven voodoo dolls with your name on them
I'm saying seven hundred prayers....
You make me superstitious
Whenever you come 'round
Something inauspicious is rumblin' the ground
You make me superstitious
Like midnight at the ball
You make me superstitious
I'm waiting for the fall

Step on the fat crack, break someone's back (that crack in the sidewalk)
That crack won't break no back!
I'll jump on a hundred, calling all bitches
You're the only one that makes me superstitious
Oh, you! You make me superstitious

(Chorus 2)

Seven vials of holy water
Seven lockets of your hair
Seven voodoo dolls with your name on them
I'm saying seven hundred prayers....
You make me superstitious
Whenever you come near Danger and suspicion whisper in my ear
You make me superstitious
Like midnight at the ball
You make me superstitious
I'm waiting for the fall....

I'll burn chain letters, laughing in the heat
Line up seven ladders, I'm dancing underneath Shatter every mirror, I'll walk upon the glass
And pluck a lobe from every four-leaf clover in the grass
Ooooo, You make me superstitious

THE DEVIL TOOK ME

Well I swear I saw Elvis working in a hardware store and an earthquake hit here yesterday but I felt it the day before Now God and David Copperfield can turn anything into a dove but when I bring the devil into my bed, everything turns into love

Pre-Chorus

He wakes the sun in time to rise
He calls the ocean prelude tides
Walks in the door before it opens
He comes to me when I'm done hoping

Chorus

The devil took me to bed last night
The devil took me in his arms
The devil took my emptiness and filled me with his charms
The devil took me when I took him to my home

My grandpa called me Tuesday though he died the week before last
And then an angel posing as my friend came and gave me a kick in the ass

Pre-Chorus

Chorus

I haven't slept since August 'cause I can't close my eyes
This must mean I'm a genius or just a zombie in disguise

I heard a spider sing to me while spinning a silky thread and then Jesus manifested in a chair
He told me to keep my head

Pre-Chorus

Chorus

That old devil took me
The devil took me, oh yeah

THE LION PAPERS

Words on a page so small
The Lion waits, He growls and I stall
But in my soul he's the howling change
And I let him rearrange me
I yearn here on the page
There's a blank one at the end of each day

As night descends, I breathe and I pray to the one who gives me breath who wakes me, takes me to my death
Let me go to the Lion tonight, for he waits
He's not my master, I'm not his slave
The Lion only wants my sweet and secret raves

Rainbow? Right
Nothing like that here in my life
No color, no pot of gold
No drama, just the same old, same old Uninspiring blend, I'm borrowing again
No poetry in me, can't you see?

(Chorus)

The Lion waits on my page
I sell my secrets and rage
The Lion eases my pain for the price of refrain

Should I write with candor and expectation?
Or sweet stylish condemnation?
It doesn't matter, I always shatter
Then the Lion takes my tatters with elation

(Chorus 2x)

The Lion roars and wakes me
From a terrible dream, he shakes me
I open my eyes and he urges my soul
Evolve, revolve and sacrifice the old

The Lion shows me a rainbow dancing 'round the moon
And tiny purple butterflies emancipate my blues
Color and harmony swell in my room
Resolution, absolution in the sequel: me and you

(Chorus)

But the rainbow disappears (The Lion Papers)
Leaving the Lion with me and my fears (The Lion Papers)
It's a restless time to be alive (The Lion Papers)
And The Lion Papers thrive (The Lion Papers)

(Chorus)

TOO LATE

The night is holding you a captive to her show while you watch on bended knee
Cool and dangerous, her beauty strikes your soul
Come to wake you from your sleep

I'm standing out in the rain
No one can tell that my soul calls and tears fall
I must break this spell
Next night, look at the sign surrounding the moon Rainbow says that my time is due

(Refrain)

But it may be too late
It may be too late
It may be too late
It may be too late
It may be too late for us

I'll put these dim lights here in the bar
Blue in guitars
I'll make love so strong
It will shuffle the stars
Try, cry, tell me a lie
Rave all year long
I'll prove you wrong
Right here in this song

(Refrain)

(Bridge)

Ooo, ooo, will you fight for my love (x4)

So when you're standing out in the rain who really cares?
Will you suffer another day of nightmares?
Speed, greed, you don't bleed and you're alone
You need nobody but where is your home?

(Refrain)

YOU'RE MY STAR

Somebody spilled a million diamonds on the velvet sky
But the only one that I'll see tonight is you

And when heaven calls for the perfect shine
A few cast glitter, but none like mine – you're divine
And you're my star

(chorus)

You're my star, my star
I feel you near and feel you far
Day or night, my guiding light, love, you
You're my star

If they host the Hall of Fame and Hollywood's best right here in my room, I won't be impressed because you
You are my star

The sun could slide, baby, out of the blue but I wouldn't cry 'cause I'd be warm with you, it's true
You are my star

(chorus x2)

(bridge/solo)

And if a black cloud moves to take you from my view Deep down in my soul, I know I have you shining through
And if a tempest tries to push you from the skies
I will ride that wind until I find heaven's eyes

Somebody spilled a million diamonds on the velvet sky
But the only one I will see tonight is you...

And when heaven calls for the perfect shine
A few cast glitter, but none like mine – you're divine
You're divine, yes
Love, you
You're my star

ZILLIONAIRE

Here it is, later: 39 days
Is it true that you have nothing to say?
I see no love letters in my mail
And no love hound hot on my happy trail

Deep inside me
it won't matter
I'll take the loss
but I won't shatter
Because I've got all I could want right in there
I'm a Zillionaire

If I had a car to drive
You know, honey, I'd always give you a ride
We could cruise back and park on my street
But not in the garage (That's where I sleep)

Deep inside me
it won't matter
I'll ride the bus
but I won't shatter
Because I've got a hot Rolls Royce soul-affair
I'm a Zillionaire

It seems every hour of every day
Another hurdle that I must face
I have to work harder
Have they fixed the race?
with some reunion horse – It's a damned disgrace

Deep inside me
it won't matter
I don't lose in the end and I don't shatter
Because I've got a pot of love gold to share
I'm a Zillionaire (a Zillionaire)
I'm a Zillionaire (can you feel it?)
I'm a Zillionaire (I got it all). . . .
